Solicitations or advertisements and sales, displays, or distribution of publications on College property are not permitted, except as outlined in the procedures related to this policy. The College reserves the right to deny solicitation permission for any group or organization that it feels compromises the integrity of the institution.

Solicitation of any kind at any CMC location by outside parties, students, full- and part-time instructors/faculty, or employees of the College, is prohibited, unless approved in advance by the College President or her or his designee. The College President shall implement appropriate procedures to carry out the intent of this policy.

Solicitation shall include any individual or group who is promoting the sale or use of a particular product or service, or a contribution to an individual or organization. This policy includes solicitations made through campus email listserves.
