Colorado Mountain College (CMC) has a standing goal of developing relationships with other colleges and universities in its region and beyond to allow for easy transfer of enrollment status and credits between the College and other institutions. These relationships can take the form of Articulation Agreements, Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs), and Transfer Guides.

Current Articulation Agreements, Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs), and Transfer Guides shall be maintained in a publicly accessible archive.

The College President, Chief Academic Officer, or designee are authorized to pursue, negotiate, and confirm all Articulation Agreements, Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs), and Transfer Guides on behalf of the College.

The Board shall be updated periodically of all new Articulation Agreements, Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs), and Transfer Guides entered into and/or created by the College.
