Colorado Mountain College (CMC), at times, may need to reassign an employee to an interim position due to a vacancy, illness, or other extended absence.

Interim Appointment

An interim reassignment will be for a period of greater than ninety days and will include additional compensation. Reassignments will include release back to the employee’s previous position and compensation at the conclusion of the interim assignment.

Interim Appointments shall only be made for vacant Staff positions at the College and must be approved by the President in advance of the appointment.
