From time to time, it is appropriate for Colorado Mountain College (CMC) to acknowledge those persons or entities that have had a significant impact upon the College. Recognition may be accorded by the Board of Trustees by the naming of buildings, facilities, features, or portions of buildings to honor those individuals or entities. Such recognition may be initiated by the Board of Trustees, the College President, or the Colorado Mountain College Foundation.

The Colorado Mountain College Foundation may, as occasions arise, engage in the encouragement of contributions to enhance and support the mission of the College. The Colorado Mountain College Foundation may, as a means of recognizing the generosity of contributors, propose to the Board the naming of a building, facility, features, or portion of a facility in honor of the contributor or contributors. Naming of buildings shall be subject to the discretion of the Board.

The College President shall, in conjunction with the Colorado Mountain College Foundation, develop procedures to implement this policy.
